NIALS STAFF CLINIC COMMISSIONED

The NIALS staff Clinic was on November 25th, 2010 officially commissioned in Lagos amidst jubilation from staff of the Lagos Office.

Commissioning the clinic, the Director-General of the Institute, Prof. Epiphany Azinge, SAN in company of all Principal and management staff of the Institute, expressed joy to the Almighty God for the realization of the clinic project. The project, the Director-General noted, was conceived as a welfare package to staff of the Lagos office for the purpose of availing themselves to Primary Health Care treatment. The Director-General while assuring the medical team of Management's support to the clinic in the provision of drugs and other equipment. He urged Tochi Joy Okwor and her medical team to bring their medical expertise to the advantage of staff of the Institute and their immediate families. The Director-General also called on staff to take advantage of Management's best wishes and patronize the clinic which will offer free services to staff.

Earlier, Dr. (Mrs.) Tochi Joy Okwor appreciated management for taking the initiative of setting up the Occupational Health Department. She commended the Director-General for demonstrating that the Institute is an employer of choice. She informed the group that amongst other Occupational Health Services, the department will offer Primary Care Services through the out patient clinic.

The Doctor also said that the department will plan and implement work place wellness programs as is currently the practice all over the world. She stated that in order to ensure that the wellness program meets staff needs; a wellness survey will be conducted. She then presented the wellness survey questionnaire to the Director-General and management staff present at the occasion and emphasized that confidentiality and anonymity will be maintained at all times by the clinic.

The Doctor concluded that the decision by the Institute to provide the clinic for its staff was a step in the right direction. The Institute, she said, has demonstrated by this kind gesture that it has come of age to be able to manage its staff Medical Health Scheme.

Responding on behalf of the management, the Institute Secretary, Mr. James Bathnna, assured all that Management was desirous of improving in its staff welfare and that the clinic was only one of numerous projects planned by the Prof. Azinge's led management. He called on staff to reciprocate these gesture with renewed efforts and zeal so as to fulfil the mandate of the Institute. To whom much is given, much is expected, Mr. Bathnna concluded.

Present at the commissioning of the staff clinic were Prof. Bolaji Owasanoye, Director of Research, Dr. Austine, Nweze, Institute Bursar, other Management and staff of the Institute.

The clinic is situated at the ground floor of the NIALS Lagos office.

NIALS MAIDEN/NBA DIALOGUE:

The Management of the Institute held an interactive session on matters relating to the Legal Profession with the President of the Nigerian Bar Association and other Legal minds on December 10, 2010, took place at the Institute's office in Lagos.

The aim of the Dialogue is to assist the NBA President in setting an agenda and plan of action for the Nigerian Bar Association in particular, and the Legal profession in general.

The Dialogue dwelt on the following broad areas:

- Ø Legislative Advocacy and Good Governance;
- Ø Continuing Legal Education;
- Ø Rule of Law and Fundamental Human Rights;
- Ø Specialization; and
- Ø Election and Electoral Dispute

The Dialogue attracted Law and Library Academics from the Institute who were invited to submit abstracts within the framework of the above themes for discussion at the interactive session.

Declaring the interactive session opened, the Director-General, NIALS welcomed all participants and urged them to make on the broad areas that would add value and meaning to the entire essence of the interactive session.

The NBA President in his statement expressed great joy at the Institute's effort in organizing this interactive session in the interest of the legal profession towards providing innovative ideas that would precipitate its advancement. He further remarked that every process is a learning process and so he has availed himself of the opportunity to a part of the session so as to move the NBA forward.

On Human Rights, Prof. Dakas one of the lead discussants spoke extensively on the need for NBA to strengthen the rendering of probono legal services by legal practitioners.

He went ahead to make the following points towards improving the services of probono:

- 1) Probono should be a subject of Capacity building and networking for Lawyers.

- 2) Incenticizing Interest litigation in favor of those who are involve in probono.
- 3) Designing a probono Month in any given year.
- 4) Setting standard and framework to deal with probono issues by setting up a committee on probono services, and concluded by calling on the NBA President to put in place, machinery for overcoming these issues.

Professor Fagbohun spoke on Freedom of Information Bill, and suggested that NBA must be able to organize the meeting of stakeholders to be able to sanitize a win-win situation to enable it have an information bill being passed into law.

Community services/Rights was discussed by Mrs. Chuma-Okoro who suggested that the NBA should inculcate programmes and services which will be of immense interest to communities. Using individuals or groups e.g. Law School Students in rendering and achieving this aim.

In reacting to these suggestions, the NBA President commenced the discussants in putting together these ideas and remarked that in achieving all that has been said, he will need a good number of officials as Executives to share various resources with members of the Bar in Diaspora in areas of Law. He further noted the need to extend membership to three (3) jurisdiction i.e. UK, US and Canada towards actualizing these goals.

He also stated that NBA will be involved in the training programmes and workshops organized by the Institute come 2011.

Other speakers included Prof. Idornigie who spoke on Legal Education in Nigeria. He analysed the current council of Legal Education Act and called for review and an amendment of the council of legal Education Act to respond to the challenges of the 21st Century.

Mrs. Udombana spoke on Continuing Legal Education. She dwelt on the rights of NIALS registering with the NBA as service providers in the area of Legal Education. She also drew attention to the different areas the NBA Continuing Legal Education Arm and NIALS can work together for the benefit of Nigerian Lawyers.

NIALS ORGANISES FIRST INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS TRAINING

The International Human Rights Training Programme organized by the Institute was declared opened by the Director-General, Prof. Epiphany, SAN on 22nd November, 2010, at the Ayo Ajomo Auditorium. The programme lasted for 2 weeks.

In his opening address, the Director-General welcomed participants to the Maiden Edition of the programme stating that the training was the first of its kind in Africa.

He commended participants and their various organizations for their interest in participating in the programme despite the short notice and publicity given, urging them to take advantage of the diverse issues and topics that would be presented by various resource persons throughout the 2-week training period.

Prof. Ayo Atsenuwa who represented the Director General at the closing ceremony, commended the participants for making the course a reality, in view of the short notice that was given, promising that the quality of the programme would be improved on in subsequent workshops, to actualize its international standard. Participants in turn rated the course and its coordination high and viewed it as a welcome development.

Highpoint of the closing ceremony was the award of certificates to participants who were drawn from government establishments, the Nigeria Customs and Excise, the Nigeria Police as well as some human rights groups. The co-ordinator of the training, Mrs. N. Udombana and some other principal officers the Institute were in attendance to grace the closing ceremony.

NIALS FELLOWS LECTURE AND CONFERMENT OF HONOURARY FELLOWS AWARDS OF THE INSTITUTE

The 2010 NIALS Fellows Lecture and the conferment of Honourary Fellowship of the Institute were held on November 25th, 2010 at the Nicon Luxury Hotel in Abuja. The events, which commenced at 10.30am with NIALS Fellows, walking majestically in their beautiful robes into the hall at Nicon Luxury, Abuja, began in earnest with the National Anthem. The Master of Ceremony took over the podium to welcome the dignitaries amongst who were:-

- (i) Hon. Justice A. I. Katsina Alu, JSC, GCON, FNIALS, Chief Justice of Nigeria
- (ii) HAGF & Minister of Justice, represented by, Alhaji Ahmed Yola, Solicitor-General of the Federation and Permanent Secretary, Federal Ministry of Justice
- (iii) Hon. Justice Musdapha Dahiru, CON; FNIALS, Chairman of NIALS Governing Council.
- (iv) Prof. Epiphany Azinge, SAN, Director-General NIALS
- (v) Chief (Mrs.) Folake Solanke, SAN, FNIALS
- (vi) Hon. Justice Aloomu Mukhtar
- (vii) Hon. Justice Mustapha Akanbi, Former Chairman, ICPC
- (viii) Prof. I. A. Ayua, SAN, FNIALS, Former Director-General, NIALS and Solicitor General of the Federation
- (ix) Hon. Justice Bola Babalakin (Rtd)
- (x) Prof. A. B. Kasumu, SAN
- (xi) Chief Akin Olujimi, SAN

In his welcome address, the Director-General expressed his appreciation to the invitees who took time to attend the function. He said the recipients of the award had been scrutinized and found worthy in their various capacities to be appointed Fellows of the Institute having contributed earnestly to the development of the Institute and the legal profession.

The Chief Justice of the Federation, Honourable Justice A. I. Katsina-Alu, who was the Chairman of the occasion, spoke glowingly of the diligence of Prof. Azinge which he had brought to bear on his work since the inception of his tenure. He praised for continuity in all the projects.

The Governing Council Chairman Hon. Justice Musdapha, JSC, CON said he was excited to be part of the lofty tower of knowledge exemplified by the Institute and commended the Director-General in sustaining the vision of the pioneering founders.

In his own remarks, the Honourary Attorney General and Minister of Justice through the Solicitor-General, Alh. Ahmed Yola, congratulated Hon Justice Musdapha on his appointment as new Chairman of the Council. He also expressed joy for the manner and wisdom the Director-General and his Management team introduced various programmes in the Institute such as Roundtables, Conferences and the new courses. He urged the Director-General not to relent in his efforts.

The Guest Lecturer, Chief Mrs. Solanke, SAN, FNIALS, described variously as the first among the first, spoke from the backdrop of a legal luminary, a visionary, a mother, a preacher and a Fellow of NIALS. In her speech, she commended the efforts of the protocol department of the Institute for making her feel welcomed and comfortable. She commended the conduct of NIALS Staff generally, especially their politeness and manners and urged them to keep the good works.

In her lecture, which had its theme as "The 1999 Constitution and the Dilemmas of a Nation in search of Restoration", her desire for a better Nigeria and a Nigerian leader, could be felt.

She spoke on the gap between the Senators and House of Representative members and the Civil Servants regarding salaries and standards of living. Many people are wallowing in abject poverty while the Senators are living in their opulence. The most disheartening thing about them is their lack of focus and commitment to their jobs. She said Nigerians still groping in darkness and needs to move forward. She made some recommendations such as moving upwards the age of presidential aspirants from forty to forty-five while gubernatorial aspirant should be moved from thirty to thirty-five. She also raised issue on the entry qualification of political aspirants from primary school certificate to degree amongst others. At the end of her speech, she encouraged NIALS to continue, on the path, which she has already started, and wished the Director-General a fruitful tenure.

For the award of Fellowship of the Institute, six persons who had distinguished themselves in the practice of law and had at one time or another been an asset to the Institute were conferred with Honourary Award of Fellow of the Nigerian Institute of Advanced Legal Studies . The awardees were:

- (1) Hon. Justice Dahiru Musdaphar, JSC, CON

TRAINING COURSE ON ECOWAS COMMUNITY COURT OF JUSTICE

*Mr. Yusuf Danmadami
Representing Prof. H. N. Donli*

NIALS paved a new path in creating awareness and impactation of knowledge on the activities of ECOWAS Court when she organized training on the ECOWAS Court of Justice, the first of its kind in Nigeria and West Africa, on November 1st 2010.

2005 expanded the jurisdiction of the Court, and for the first time was given powers to determine cases of violation of human rights that may occur in any member state. As at August 2010, the Court has received 77 cases, with a total of 29 judgments and 8 substantial rulings, 15 judgments and rulings respectively were on alleged human rights violations.

The Director-General in appreciating the fact that the training was the of its kind, informed that the course was borne out of the need to create awareness and expose people to the activities of the ECOWAS Court as more people were now submitting themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court.

The highpoint of the opening ceremony was the formal introduction of the course participants and their affiliation. A total of fifteen (15) people attended the course and were all presented with certificate of participation. The closing ceremony was chaired by Professor Paul Idornigie.

LAND FOR PERMANENT SITE ALONG AIRPORT ROAD, ABUJA

A parcel of land has now been allocated to the Institute for its permanent site. However, a budgetary allocation of Four Billion Naira (N4b) only would be required for the project.

The permanent site which is designed to be a state of the art building of its construction work, would house all the departments, centres and the Postgraduates School of the Institute. The prototype clearly reveals the visionary focus of the Institute and its current leadership, in strengthening the infrastructure of legal education in Nigeria and Africa.

NIALS TRAINING ON THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM'S AND PROGRAMME

The Director-General Prof. Epiphany Azinge, SAN formerly declared opened the training workshop on United Nations Systems and Programmes on December 6, 2010.

The occasion had in attendance principal officers, staff and participants. The Director-General in his welcome address remarked that the programme is designed to create an awareness preparatory training for Nigerian lawyers to be able to participate effectively at international fora and conferences of the United Nations and its agencies and to speak for Nigeria on both national and international issues of interest in any part of the world.

He further remarked that the workshop being a maiden one and directed at impacting specialized skills and expertise may not be as attractive as expected in view of turn out of participants but that the Institute will continue to carry out its capacity building mandate despite odds and challenges that might confront it.

Eminent resources persons delivered fourteen topics in the 5 day-programme. Participants were drawn from both the Federal, State and private sectors.

The Gani Fawehinmi Students' Chambers, requested that "as an honourable man in the Legal profession, who is highly respected locally and internationally, a man with high integrity, an academia of high value, a Senior Advocate of Nigeria, an achiever who has excelled in all areas of life, the Director-General, Prof. Epiphany Azinge, SAN should be the Patron and Mentor to the Gani Fawehinmi Students Chambers.

In his response, the Director-General, applauded the courage of the Gani Fawehinmi Students' Chambers members in naming the Chambers after the Late Legal icon, Chief Gani Fawehinmi. He commended the zeal and enthusiasm of the students of the Faculty of Law, University of Lagos, a Faculty he also graduated from in 1979.

The Director-General encouraged them on the need to engage in continuous research "as a stepping stone to success. The Director-General recited the Institute's motto: knowledge that makes the difference". He encouraged them to seek knowledge that will help them to excel in life. As Lawyers, they should always carry out research. According to the Director-General, captains of industries and great academic and political leaders have emerged from the Faculty of Law, University of Lagos.

He advised them to shun vices like cultism and examination malpractices, as the true meaning of greatness is the ability to rise above ones challenges and obstacles.

The Director-General informed members of the Gani Fawehinmi Student's Chambers that the Institute has an array of distinguished professors with expertise in different areas of the law whom they could call on. He also assured them of the use of the Institute's library which is the best and largest Law Library in Sub-Saharan Africa.

The Director-General, accepted their request to be the Patron of the Gani Fawehinmi Student Chambers. He assured them that the Institute will be glad to render any assistance to them at any given time.

The students applauded the Director-General and appreciated his acceptance as their Patron and the promise of necessary assistance to the Chambers.

MRS. UFUOMA LAMIKANRA, A PRINCIPAL LIBRARIAN IN NIALS BAGS COMMONWEALTH PROFESSIONAL FELLOWSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

The Commonwealth Scholarship Commission in the United Kingdom has awarded a Professional Fellowship to Mrs. Ufuoma Lamikanra, a Principal Librarian with the Nigerian Institute of Advanced Legal Studies.

Mrs. Ufuoma Lamikanra is following in the tradition of some 17,000 individuals who have benefitted from the Scheme since its inception fifty years ago. By this Fellowship, she is now a Commonwealth Fellow.

The Fellowship is administered jointly by the Association of Commonwealth Universities [ACU] in London and the British Council in Manchester, United Kingdom.

The Professional Fellowship will be tenable at the Institute of Advanced Legal Services, London, from January to March, 2011.

The Governing Council, the Director-General, Management and Staff of the Institute, heartily congratulate her.

Mrs. U. Lamikanra
